

Sam Zahnd CPA, CGA

Sam currently holds the position of Chief Financial Officer and Compliance Manager at the Independent Accountants' Investment Counsel Inc. (IAIC) and has more than 12 years of senior management experience in different industries, including finance, real estate and manufacturing.

After earning his B.Comm from the University of Guelph in 2004, Sam began his career managing a real estate business, responsible for all financial and compliance matters for the firm. Sam then spent five years with an international manufacturing company in senior management, successfully establishing its Canadian operations. Most recently Sam spent four years with a national agricultural lending institution working in various roles.

Sam Zahnd
(519) 291-2817
samz@iaic.ca